| 6 | Some weeks seemed to have lower variety than others - had a hard time finding 5 units that I could use. Because we weren't able to pick up every week we weren't able to appreciate the good value of a membership. Always like to have more interaction with the farmer at pick up. | 12/5/2014 1:12 PM |
| 7 | Providing alternatives for when someone cannot make their designated pickup would make the experience perfect. Colchester does a fantastic job of selection, production and presentation. A little more flexibility on pick would be nice. | 12/5/2014 1:07 PM |
| 8 | Theresa and the rest of her staff do an amazing job! So friendly, helpful, polite, nice to talk to. They give menu and recipe suggestions and are genuinely interested in growing the CSA. | 12/3/2014 10:56 PM |
| 9 | I live in Annapolis and feel that if there could be a CSA drp off at one of the multiple Annapolis farmers markets that that would be an excellent addition. There is a considerable demand for local organic foods in Annapolis and I think that Colchester could increase their sales if they were willing to make the extra 20 minute trip. I was able to organize a buying club for S. Brigid's farm beef (Kennedyville) that ran for approximately two years before closing due to deciding to sell through a retailer due to low sales volume. I think that produce would be more sustainable as there is a more broad market and Colchester might be willing to work through an existing farmers market. | 12/3/2014 3:05 PM |

Q6 Variety of Produce. The reasons we plant the vegetables we do depends on numerous factors, of which, one is CSA member input. Is there something we did not offer during the 2014 growing season you would like us to grow? What vegetables would you like to have received with greater frequency or over a longer period of time during the season? What vegetables would you like to have received less frequently or over a shorter period of time? Please be as specific as possible. Please note whether you are stating a preference due to love or hatred of a particular vegetable, or if you actually think there was something wrong with the quantities we provided, whether too much or too little, and why. And please note: we cannot promise we'll be able to entertain your requests, because the produce we're able to offer you depends somewhat on the whims of mother nature, the availability and/or cost of seed, etc. Nevertheless, we're interested in your suggestions and will attempt to entertain them if feasible.

| 1 | More variety in the summer months. I feel that the farm has the greatest variety in the fall. | 12/12/2014 2:56 PM |
| 2 | fewer turnips | 12/12/2014 1:32 PM |
| 3 | A longer season of the heads of green leafy lettuce would have been nice. I would love to see asparagus offered. The addition of more fruit choices would also be great. | 12/12/2014 10:16 AM |
| 4 | More variety of squash, butternut, acorn etc. | 12/11/2014 10:52 PM |
| 5 | We would enjoy some fruits being available, but realize that veggies are easier & more productive with longer seasons. | 12/11/2014 9:59 PM |
| 6 | I would have enjoyed more tree fruits and other local fruits. More corn and canteloupes and flowers. Also, a wider variety and longer availability of hard winter squashes would be great; they keep well and offer unique nutrients. I thought there were too many nightshades offered (peppers tomatoes potatoes) but I understand most people love them more than I do. | 12/11/2014 9:44 PM |
| 7 | I was happy to see Brussels Sprouts this year. I'd like to see Lima beans. I'm not a big fan of radishes of any kind, I've discovered, but there were always plenty of other choices. | 12/11/2014 8:41 PM |
| 8 | All ok | 12/11/2014 8:17 PM |

| | | |
|----|---|--------------------|
| 9 | I am happy with the variety and the amounts. | 12/11/2014 5:05 PM |
| 10 | I would like some butternut and acorn squash for next year. Since they last a little bit longer, I can keep them into the winter months! | 12/11/2014 4:20 PM |
| 11 | I would love some apples. There's an enormous orchard here but they spray a ton of something on them. | 12/11/2014 4:14 PM |
| 12 | I wouldn't change much. The only thing I needed to buy was garlic, because honestly, I hate large cloved garlic. Getting four cloves per head was a waste for me. I use 1/4 of a clove and the rest was wasted. It may have been because I traveled during the squash time, but I missed having zucchini for more than two weeks. | 12/11/2014 4:02 PM |
| 13 | Excellent selection this year as well as quantity. | 12/11/2014 2:57 PM |
| 14 | We always love the tomatoes, so we're happy to have those for as long as possible. We would have like more cilantro throughout the season this year. But, generally, we're happy campers. | 12/10/2014 4:43 PM |
| 15 | love leeks; would like flavorful pumpkin/squash that's a good keeper; appreciated that there were more melons this year & potato selection | 12/9/2014 5:46 PM |
| 16 | Maybe more spinach | 12/8/2014 9:37 AM |
| 17 | Variety was great. | 12/7/2014 8:08 PM |
| 18 | Too many radishes and onions, not enough sweet and regular potatoes and butternut squash. Would have loved more carrots, sugar snap peas, okra, lima beans, and Brussels sprouts. How about strawberries and raspberries? | 12/7/2014 7:21 PM |
| 19 | All were really good | 12/7/2014 6:10 PM |
| 20 | more brussle sprouts | 12/7/2014 5:15 PM |
| 21 | Not much spinach or Delicata Squash this year- assume weather related | 12/6/2014 10:30 PM |
| 22 | Brussel sprouts are a favorite for us; we would really like more than 1 week of them. | 12/6/2014 11:48 AM |
| 23 | More spinach, brussell sprouts, okra, corn | 12/6/2014 10:57 AM |
| 24 | I may have missed, but wanted more squash--delicata that you had in previous years, never seems like there is enough! :) | 12/6/2014 10:06 AM |
| 25 | We know it is hard but we would LOVE to have access to more fruit. | 12/6/2014 9:55 AM |
| 26 | I like familiar veggies and found plenty of those. My most exotic is the arugula and there was lots. | 12/6/2014 6:54 AM |
| 27 | Butternut squash, acorn squash, more variety if spring vegetables maybe add broccoli and leeks | 12/6/2014 6:43 AM |
| 28 | we like spaghetti squash | 12/5/2014 10:56 PM |
| 29 | We never take turnips because we do not like them. I would love to have more butternut squash, spaghetti squash, parsnips or mushrooms. | 12/5/2014 10:06 PM |
| 30 | I thought the head lettuce was excellent this year...would like to see more offered. | 12/5/2014 7:51 PM |
| 31 | I don't think you should bother growing cantaloupe, watermelon or sweet corn, as they are so readily available in this area. I love the watermelon radishes, the kohlrabi, and the turnips. My family did not like whatever cauliflower variety you planted but I did not mind it. All in all I think you had a great variety! | 12/5/2014 3:33 PM |
| 32 | Sometimes the quantity of an item was too large for the two of us to consume before they went bad. (Unless I chose to freeze the item). | 12/5/2014 3:25 PM |
| 33 | Could you guys grow salsify? | 12/5/2014 3:07 PM |
| 34 | more corn but we have redmans to fill in | 12/5/2014 2:48 PM |
| 35 | more head lettuce, it's my favorite - love the carrots - fruit options - | 12/5/2014 2:24 PM |
| 36 | More greens (kale, collards, spinach) and potatoes, if you can, please. Appreciated having "free" quantities of seasonings, basil, e.g., to encourage clients' trying new things. | 12/5/2014 2:18 PM |
| 37 | We love beets and kohlrabi. The more the better! | 12/5/2014 2:18 PM |

| | | |
|----|--|--------------------|
| 38 | Love golden beets - either missed them or you didn't offer this year. Maybe I missed the parsnips, too. Not a big kohlrabi fan. Really missed the lettuce for the brief time you didn't have it. Would like more head lettuce varieties - Bibb, Buttercrunch, etc. Tatsoi new to me, and I liked it. Trying sauerkraut making (first time) and used a giant head of cabbage. Will try cauliflower next. Fermenting process easier than I thought. | 12/5/2014 2:00 PM |
| 39 | I would like to have spinach available as long as possible. If not available from the CSA I simply have to buy it from the local grocery store (I would prefer the CSA). | 12/5/2014 1:55 PM |
| 40 | The variety is amazing. I particularly appreciate the variety of lettuces and their availability throughout the summer (when I can't grow them in my garden). The melons are great too. I would love to see more fruit crops, though I understand this is challenging because of the investment in trees, vines, etc. Maybe strawberries would be feasible? | 12/5/2014 1:40 PM |
| 41 | Lima Beans, please! | 12/5/2014 1:20 PM |
| 42 | I prefer the heads of lettuce over the mix, maybe try different types in the mix next season. | 12/5/2014 1:18 PM |
| 43 | Most of what I would have liked more of was influenced by weather - e.g. spinach, winter squashes | 12/5/2014 1:14 PM |
| 44 | Would like cucumbers, more weeks of tomatoes and carrots (they were small this year), corn. Also - seedless watermelon? | 12/5/2014 1:12 PM |
| 45 | I was very happy with the varieties offered. So happy to have Anaheim peppers! | 12/5/2014 1:07 PM |
| 46 | Can't think of anything - we loved the quality and variety of produce available | 12/5/2014 1:07 PM |
| 47 | More frequently or longer: Sugar snap peas, spinach, cucumbers, zucchini, brussel sprouts | 12/5/2014 11:29 AM |
| 48 | So happy there are brussel sprouts now! Everything is beautiful. | 12/4/2014 10:37 PM |
| 49 | More brussel sprouts please! | 12/4/2014 4:35 PM |
| 50 | satisfied with variety | 12/4/2014 3:50 PM |
| 51 | None | 12/3/2014 10:56 PM |
| 52 | It is a special bonus to have such vibrantly healthy herbs. Any chance to expand variety, even if the more unusual became a unit choice? Would love to see extended period of spinach and include yellow beets. Is Jerusalem Artichokes (Sunchoke) an option? The sweet potatoes seem to go on for a very long time, but nice to have two choices. | 12/3/2014 5:25 PM |
| 53 | Someone at our house loves beets. would love to see the beet harvest stretched as long as possible. | 12/3/2014 4:40 PM |
| 54 | I would love if you offered berries (strawberries, blueberries, raspberries etc.). Fruit would be great to, but obviously that requires significant time after planting before they bear fruit. I love your selection and the variety you offer. I cannot get enough of corn and tomatoes and you do a great job of both. I also really enjoy your eggs. We bought a dozen nearly every week. Please keep them going. They are fantastic! | 12/3/2014 3:05 PM |
| 55 | More sweet corn | 12/3/2014 1:13 PM |
| 56 | Cucumber and Tomato season got a little overwhelming, but I can understand why. I thought the variety was nice, honestly. I will admit I grow tired of radishes by the end of the winter but I don't know who wouldn't. Maybe some info on how to best store things would be helpful (onions, potatoes, etc) so that if people get bored by how repetitive things get, they can get veggies for long term storage? We had a great time pickling and canning. | 12/3/2014 12:10 PM |
| 57 | Would love to have more spinach available throughout the cool season. also would like to have the opportunity to purchase potatoes and onions in quantity. | 12/3/2014 8:45 AM |
| 58 | Would love to see some soup type beans - limas, lentils, peas maybe dry beans if possible. Also, celery would be great and more spinach. | 12/3/2014 8:40 AM |
| 59 | would've appreciated bigger share of swiss chard | 12/3/2014 7:38 AM |
| 60 | I would like you to grow Lima Beans. | 12/2/2014 10:42 PM |
| 61 | Part of the fun is the challenge of figuring out what to do with whatever nature and you provide relative to variety and quantity. It makes me feel closer to nature to deal with the variations from year to year. | 12/2/2014 9:50 PM |
| 62 | some winter squash would be nice. An overabundance of turnips (like, don't love) and potatoes (Love) but were often with holes filled with soil. Still, worth it to have these organics, just have to be careful cleaning well and looking for holes. | 12/2/2014 8:57 PM |

| | | |
|----|--|-------------------|
| 63 | I enjoyed all the produce, there was never a time that I didn't think there was a great variety to choose from. My husband would like to suggest that maybe you grow berries or fruit. | 12/2/2014 8:25 PM |
| 64 | Tomatoes for canning. | 12/2/2014 6:25 PM |
| 65 | Loved the spinach and tatsoi and could have chosen them more. | 12/2/2014 6:02 PM |
| 66 | Salad greens are our biggest priority, and you have had them for a very long season - great. Having recipes there at the pick-up for some of the less routine items, might be a good idea. | 12/2/2014 4:51 PM |
| 67 | This probably has to do with the weather, but I would love to see more winter squash. I know most people prefer small summer squash, but for those of us who grate it for baking, or like to stuff them for a one dish meal, larger summer squash would come in handy. | 12/2/2014 4:06 PM |
| 68 | Too many tomatillos love the garlic on a regular basis more ginger would be nice More spices beyond parsley would be nice | 12/2/2014 3:57 PM |
| 69 | I love fall squash and I was disappointed to only be able to get it at one or two of the pick ups. I would love to see more variety of fall squash and to be able to receive it as part of my share over a longer period of time. | 12/2/2014 3:50 PM |
| 70 | It would be nice to perhaps have some fruits in the mix. Maybe berries? | 12/2/2014 3:46 PM |
| 71 | I would enjoy great quantities of squash, sweet potatoes, and other vegetables that you only sent one or two of at a time in the medium share. I did the medium share for higher quantities, it is hard to cook one squash. | 12/2/2014 3:26 PM |
| 72 | Desire fall/winter squash options such as butternut, acorn and delicata | 12/2/2014 3:11 PM |

Q7 Were there crops that you normally enjoy, but did not take or eat because of poor quality (e.g. taste, presence of insects, premature spoilage)?

| 54 | Sometimes the onions get a little funky in the middle, but that's just part of how things go. It doesn't stop me from using and enjoying them. I just chop off those parts. | 12/2/2014 9:50 PM |
| 55 | Carrots were often very small and distorted which although the taste was excellent, require much time to clean and prep because of the above. | 12/2/2014 8:57 PM |
| 56 | One type of lettuce was frequently bitter, at times potatoes were shriveled/old. Felt like there was mostly the same variety from week to week and summer veggies were of short supply and duration. We enjoy the CSA experience and especially growing local organic produce. However, for some reason we feel the quality was much better last year. | 12/2/2014 8:25 PM |

| 66 | The tomatillos we got ended up having lots of worms in them, so that was disappointing and we didn't choose them again. | 12/2/2014 3:46 PM |
| 67 | In the heat of the summer some things wilted, but nothing substantial. I pick up the box in Dover around 6 PM and sitting in the heat for 2 hours prior does some damage. Not the fault of the farm. | 12/2/2014 3:26 PM |
| 68 | No. Corn had lots of insects last season but this season was great. | 12/2/2014 3:11 PM |

Q9 A “unit” of vegetables is meant to approximate what one would typically find at a supermarket: a bunch of carrots, a pint of cherry tomatoes, a bag of lettuce, or a head of broccoli. The exact weight or volume of a given “unit” of vegetables sometimes differs from one week to the next depending on a number of factors. Of all of the different vegetables you chose to take this season, were there any for which the UNIT size was far too much, or far too little?

| 4 | Garlic- too much. | 12/11/2014 10:54 PM |
| 5 | It would be nice to be able to "split" the larger quantities and perhaps get two veggies in one unit. | 12/11/2014 10:02 PM |
| 6 | No. | 12/11/2014 9:45 PM |
| 7 | No. In the past I felt that one small winter squash was too small to count as one unit, but I didn't notice this problem this year. | 12/11/2014 8:42 PM |
| 8 | Sweet potatoes too large at times | 12/11/2014 8:18 PM |

| 19 | No, unit size was just right. We are a family of three and we had no waste this season at all. | 12/6/2014 11:49 AM |
| 20 | too little Brussel Sprouts. | 12/6/2014 10:58 AM |

| 22 | There never seems to be enough tomatoes, one is allowed 2 lbs and one heirloom is 2lbs. On the other hand I consistently would see one person in particular that pics up for 2 people stuff her bags full WITHOUT measuring. Not sure what to do about this but there seemed to be loads of tomatoes in the bins and our share we were allowed was never enough. Otherwise amounts are very reasonable | 12/6/2014 10:08 AM |

| 28 | No problem with the size of units. | 12/5/2014 8:58 PM |
| 29 | Since there are just two of us the shares were more than adequate. At times we even took less knowing we would not eat the full share. Having said that I did think the shares of the early season beets were a tad small. Overall, no major complaints. | 12/5/2014 7:55 PM |
| 30 | they all seemed reasonable. | 12/5/2014 3:34 PM |

| 35 | Everything seemed fine! | 12/5/2014 2:19 PM |
| 36 | Some of those sweet potatoes were huge. Ditto the watermelon radishes - and 4 per share of those was a lot. If I recall correctly, a pint of okra (as one share) seemed skimpy. | 12/5/2014 2:09 PM |
| 37 | Most were right on. I think it depends on the individual member and how they use the produce. Again, some of the leafy greens spoiled before we were able to use them all, but that was an issue on our end. | 12/5/2014 1:57 PM |
| 38 | The unit sizes are fairly generous. | 12/5/2014 1:41 PM |
| 39 | No | 12/5/2014 1:21 PM |
| 40 | Both, partly because the same veggies were offered several weeks in a row without alot of alternatives. Could you add a basket to the pick up sites where members could deposit portions of their share they don't think they'll use and contribute the baskets to a food bank? | 12/5/2014 1:16 PM |
| 41 | No | 12/5/2014 1:13 PM |
| 42 | Greens shares could be a little bigger, such as kale and swiss chard. The lettuce and arugula were perfect sizes! | 12/5/2014 1:08 PM |
| 43 | I thought the units were generally quite reasonable. The swiss chard bunches at the end of the season seemed a little small, but other than that I thought the unit sizes were fine. | 12/5/2014 1:08 PM |

| 51 | Not for us. We used what we got, including bonuses. | 12/3/2014 12:10 PM |
| 52 | I thought the unit sizes were appropriate. | 12/3/2014 10:11 AM |
| 53 | Brussel sprouts were too little. | 12/3/2014 9:45 AM |

| | | |
|----|--|--------------------|
| 54 | As a single person, cooking for 1, I think the portions were spot on. Some may have been a tad small for a family of 2+, like the kale, Swiss chard, etc., but all in all it seemed fair and balanced. | 12/3/2014 9:13 AM |
| 55 | Never too much. | 12/3/2014 8:46 AM |
| 56 | Unit sizes seemed fair | 12/3/2014 8:41 AM |
| 57 | too little- swiss chard- otherwise fine | 12/3/2014 7:40 AM |
| 58 | No | 12/2/2014 11:08 PM |
| 59 | I was satisfied with the sizes of the units. | 12/2/2014 10:42 PM |
| 60 | No because you have the wonderful system of letting us choose. There is so much variety that we can always work it out. For example, if we know we are eating out a few times a particular, we just get things that store well like potatoes or things I can freeze and enjoy later. | 12/2/2014 9:52 PM |
| 61 | All were about right | 12/2/2014 9:27 PM |
| 62 | Swiss Chard (LOVE IT) was barely enough for two servings after it was cooked, so we never took it | 12/2/2014 8:59 PM |

| 67 | Kohlrabi last group was too large but very very fresh and good | 12/2/2014 5:58 PM |
| 68 | No, the sizes seemed pretty good. | 12/2/2014 4:52 PM |
| 69 | No. If we thought a unit was too little and we needed more of an item (spinach for example) we would use 2 units on that item instead of one. The program is flexible that way which we really enjoy. I don't think there was any item which was "far too much." | 12/2/2014 4:43 PM |
| 70 | No, quite nicely proportioned | 12/2/2014 3:58 PM |
| 71 | Sometimes a full unit of lettuce is too much for one person to consume in a week, but other than that I think all of the unit sizes were fair. | 12/2/2014 3:53 PM |
| 72 | The lettuce mixes were sometimes too much for our small family to finish. | 12/2/2014 3:47 PM |
| 73 | Some of the squash, zucchini, sweet potatoes, potatoes. | 12/2/2014 3:27 PM |
| 74 | No | 12/2/2014 3:12 PM |

| 1 | Being able to make the pickup every week. | 12/12/2014 2:59 PM |
| 2 | making pickup | 12/12/2014 1:36 PM |
| 3 | Always needing to be at pick up on the same day and time although you are flexible if we need to pick up on Saturdays at the market. | 12/12/2014 10:21 AM |
| 4 | Pick up day | 12/11/2014 10:57 PM |
| 5 | remembering the pick=up day early in the season! Once we get going it becomes habit. | 12/11/2014 10:15 PM |
| 6 | Sorry I forgot to mention this on the other page. I try to eat leafy greens every day and the offerings got really sparse in the middle of summer. I don't like spinach or chard and they really aren't very nutritious. I kept wondering if there were no other leafy greens in season or was it that the members don't want them? The delicious salad greens made up for it, once I realized that my body only needed raw greens in the high heat! Also I have to say the mesclun was absolutely excellent! | 12/11/2014 10:08 PM |
| 7 | Sometimes, getting to the pick up on time on a Friday afternoon. A few times I forgot bags and there didn't seem to be as many extra bags available this year. | 12/11/2014 8:45 PM |
| 8 | It was sometimes frustrating trying to make arrangements to pick up my produce when I was out of town on a Friday. | 12/11/2014 5:11 PM |

| 38 | I heard that there was the possibility of half season shares, 13 weeks instead of 26. As extensive home gardeners, this would be valuable for the weeks we have redundant vegetables (primarily the first 8 weeks or so of the share). We appreciate the share the most at the end of the season when we are trying to put up as much food as possible. | 12/4/2014 10:44 PM |

| 54 | I really didn't find anything challenging or difficult - you are very organized! | 12/2/2014 10:47 PM |
| 55 | Getting to Kingstown between 4-6 is sometimes challenging as we often have Tues. classes at the college. As retirees, pick ups during he afternoon would probably suit us better but we totally understand that his would not be good for working folks, and we work it out without any big problems. | 12/2/2014 10:03 PM |
| 56 | Deciding what to pick! | 12/2/2014 9:04 PM |
| 57 | Having to travel to Kent Island to pick up. Would you consider doing an Annapolis drop? There is a farmers market at the mall that the bulk of the Kent Island market providers do. I think you would have a great response. There are more people in my neighborhood that would join but Kent Island is too far. | 12/2/2014 8:31 PM |

|----|--|-------------------|
| 58 | The road back to the pick up shed becomes more challenging by the year. I wash my car almost weekly after the dusty drive and if it has rained the pot holes full of mud are impossible to avoid. Would love to see pick up at the end of the lane nearest Rt. 213 if the lane cannot be improved. | 12/2/2014 6:53 PM |

| 26 | Excellent produce, great people, great price... Please keep the KI Farmers Market pickup!!! | 12/5/2014 2:05 PM |
| 27 | Keep up the good work | 12/5/2014 1:23 PM |
| 28 | Add a few more weeks to the season (through December). | 12/5/2014 1:17 PM |
| 29 | Would love to see a Colchester cookbook with recipes from staff, board and CSA members. | 12/5/2014 1:15 PM |
| 30 | Thanks so much! We look forward to being members again next year. | 12/5/2014 1:11 PM |
| 31 | Please stay in business!!! | 12/5/2014 11:32 AM |
| 32 | Thanks again! | 12/4/2014 10:44 PM |
| 33 | I love being a part of the CSA | 12/4/2014 4:40 PM |
| 34 | I would be interested in volunteering but have to work during the day. If volunteer opportunities at night or during weekends were available I would gladly sign up. | 12/4/2014 3:31 PM |
| 35 | You have a great crew of workers, a beautifully set up tent and tables, delicious produce, polite and knowledgeable people working the booth at the Farmers Market. Great job! | 12/3/2014 11:05 PM |
| 36 | Thank you for a great season. Merry Christmas to everyone and continued success in 2015. See you in the spring!!!! | 12/3/2014 5:55 PM |
| 37 | Great job to everyone involved. This is indeed both hard work and a labor of love. Thank you. | 12/3/2014 5:34 PM |
| 38 | Keep up the great work and I hope that you consider expanding to Annapolis. If I can be of help with that or with fundraising let me know. | 12/3/2014 3:15 PM |
| 39 | Would be nice if you could partner with someone and offer fruits. I wouldn't think twice about joining again | 12/3/2014 1:17 PM |
| 40 | :) | 12/3/2014 12:13 PM |
| 41 | Thank you! Keep up the great work! | 12/3/2014 10:15 AM |
| 42 | All CSA workers were always very pleasant. Liked the bag given, but it was too small to use. | 12/3/2014 9:33 AM |
| 43 | Keep up the good work! | 12/3/2014 8:51 AM |
| 44 | Great! | 12/3/2014 8:44 AM |
| 45 | Thanks for providing my family with such great vegetables - I miss my weekly pick ups already! | 12/2/2014 10:47 PM |
| 46 | Thank you so much for what you do. You enable us to have a healthier, more interesting diet than ever before. We have fun fine tuning our cooking skills as we experiment with foods that are new to us as well as learn new ways to enjoy the flavors of familiar crops. We depend on you, and are grateful that you now provide food through the winter. | 12/2/2014 10:03 PM |
| 47 | Thanks for EVERYTHING, especially all the hard physical labor for all of us | 12/2/2014 9:04 PM |
| 48 | Keep up the great work! | 12/2/2014 8:31 PM |
| 49 | Keep up the good work. You are a blessing to our families and to the community. | 12/2/2014 6:53 PM |
| 50 | Thank you so much for another wonderful year of great food! You are the best! | 12/2/2014 6:30 PM |
| 51 | Keep up the good work! | 12/2/2014 6:09 PM |
| 52 | Thanks | 12/2/2014 5:40 PM |
| 53 | Awesome | 12/2/2014 5:18 PM |
| 54 | Theresa is terrific. She always introduces her helpers, but when she's not at the market, the engagement with the customers falls off quite a bit. | 12/2/2014 4:58 PM |
| 55 | Very great program, Theresa and all of the interns are awesome! Thank you, thank you, thank you for all that you do!! | 12/2/2014 4:47 PM |
| 56 | Keep up the good work! | 12/2/2014 4:11 PM |
| 57 | I really like how easy it is to be involved in the CSA. Everyone is so kind and helpful, providing recipes or cooking suggestions and encouragement for trying new things. | 12/2/2014 4:03 PM |

| 58 | Please continue to provide such a wonderful service to Rock Hall! | 12/2/2014 4:02 PM |
| 59 | Colchester Rocks! | 12/2/2014 3:36 PM |
| 60 | Great season but 26 weeks flew by too quickly. With their permission, include a short bio of the interns and seasonal workers who help at the distribution sites. You've had some great ones and would be nice to have updates about them. | 12/2/2014 3:19 PM |
